ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely PURE

Why these grapes? Because from the healthful grape comes the chief ingredient of Royal Baking Powder, Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Alum-phosphate powders are made with harsh mineral acids and must be avoided.

Are We Secure?

Within less than fifty years we have had a gigantic sectional war: ten years succeeding of martial law over ten States of the Union; a disputed Presidential election verging upon Civil War; the murder of three Presidents of the United States arousing a kind of a popular frenzy; and at least two insurrectionary movements calling for the armed interposition of the National Government.

We have grown from a huddle of petty sovereignties, held together by a rope of sand, into a World Power to be maintained, if it professes a policy of expansion, by an awe-inspiring Navy and a standing Army two, or three, million strong, paraded out among the States, but directed and deployed from Washington. The President is Commander-in-Chief of this tremendous armament. Is it a far stretch of fancy to conceive that there is no danger embodied by these conditions; that we are secure against all political malady; against all domestic and economic disturbances; against party spirit grown arrogant through long tenure, and personal ambition exposed to the temptations of opportunity; in short, that we, and our institutions, differing from all that ever went before in human annals, are immune and immortal?—Courier Journal.

Racing Commission Warns All Horse Men.

The State Racing Commission met at Lexington on Wednesday. Only one resolution was made public and this warns the trainers, jockeys and owners that the licenses will be revoked if they continue to race at Latonia.

S. M. Lykins, of Morgan, has been appointed Deputy Warden of the penitentiary at Frankfort at a salary of $1200, succeeding W. S. Hawkins, who became clerk. He previously served as guard for some years.

Pray for Rain.

On Oct. 16, at the close of the Presbyterian State Synod at Winchester and routine business was interrupted by the adoption of a resolution that the synod engage in immediate and earnest prayer for rain and that the ministers offer similar prayers in their churches for the next two Sundays.

The latter part of this resolution "next two Sundays" caused some serious and amusing thoughts. Does it take two weeks to hear from the Lord? Why such delay? Why not expect an answer at once?

Contract to Combs Lumber Company.

The Prison Commission opened bids for the construction of a chapel, hospital and a big barn at the School of Reform in Fayette county. The lowest bidder was the Combs Lumber Company, of Lexington, and the contract was awarded. The successful bidder proposed to do the work as follows: Chapel, $15,000; hospital, $7,500; barn, $4,000; total, $26,500. The next lowest bidders were the Lexington Lumber Company, $28,500, and Harry M. Schoonmaker, of Lexington, $28,606. Work of constructing them will begin at once.

Tobacco Seed Grading.

The Kentucky Experiment Station has already begun the grading of tobacco seed for those growers, who, realizing the advantage of seed selection, have sent in their supply of seed for that purpose. A machine divides the light and heavy seed and clears all chaff, leaving a selection of the best seed.

Tax Officials' for Campaign Funds.

At Chicago, Ill., last week National Chairman Mack declared that he was receiving reports from various parts of the South that agents of the Government were traveling through the southern States and collecting a campaign fund for the Republican party from the Federal officeholders.

Mr. Mack said he understood that the Government agents had been sent out from Washington at the direction of certain Washington Government officials.

SAYS VICTORY IS IN SIGHT

The fortieth annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association ended at Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 21. President Anna H. Shaw said: "We never have had a more instructive and comprehensive convention than this has been. We will go home with greater enthusiasm and a greater determination to continue the struggle, and if need be, enter upon a militant campaign for our birthright. We are on the battle line. Victory is in sight."

Well Done, Gov. Patterson.

Promptly upon receipt of the news that night riders at Reelfoot Lake had murdered a prominent Tennessean for revenge for interference with what they termed their "rights" in the matter of fishing, Gov. Patterson offered a reward of $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties. Should the offer of a $10,000 reward result in convictions the investment of State funds would prove economy to Tennessee. No price is too high to put upon the heads of such men as those who participated in the murder of Capt. Rankin.

The offer of large sums of money in the form of rewards is open to the objection that it might prove a temptation to unscrupulous persons, but the conviction of the innocent is of exceedingly rare occurrence, and the gravity of the situation is such that it is wise to adopt the methods that hold out the greatest promise of results.

It is to be hoped that Gov. Patterson's offer of the reward, and other efforts upon the part of the Tennessee authorities, will bring results in the form of an official execution sufficiently broad in its scope to include all of the night riders who were involved in the affair.—Courier-Journal.

Her Only Hope.

Mrs. Newton B. Thomas, Christiansburg, Ky., says: "I have used your Bourbon Polarity Cure and know that it will cure Turkey Cholera. It is my only hope of raising the birds next year."—Sold by W. S. Lloyd.

A Texas Letter.

We have received a letter from John B. Salzer from which we take:

Moody, Texas, Oct. 15, '08. Mr. B. W. Frimble,

Dear Friend:—We are all enjoying good health and fine weather. I am living on a farm 3 miles from Moody, which is a thriving little town of 1800 population. It is a local option town and all good people. I tended a farm this year of corn and cotton, and made fine crops. My corn was as good as can be found anywhere; in through gathering. I made fine cotton too and am half through gathering. This is a fine country in which to make money, but a person can't save any, it takes so much to live on. Every thing is high and nothing is raised but corn and cotton. Wishing you success in all your undertakings, I am as ever,

Yours truly,

John B. Salzer.

"Doan's Ointment cured me of eczema that had annoyed me a long time. The cure was permanent."—Hon. S. W. Matthews, Commissioner Labor Statistics, Augusta, Me. 13-4t

Congressman Brownlow, of Tennessee, has been presented with a monster petition asking his aid to get the United States Government to appropriate $50,000 toward the erection of a monument to Daniel Boone at Cumberland Gap.

Can They Do It Again?

If the people of the United States—all of them—could look behind the scenes and learn by direct, visual demonstration precisely what is going on, they would not need to be told that the one, last hope of the Republican Managers to save their ticket from overwhelming defeat is Money, heaps of Money, piled up in what are called the doubtful States the days immediately preceding the day of election.

Intelligent men everywhere know that under the reign of Mark Hanna, beginning in 1896, when McKinley money flowed like water, the single reliance was money; tainted money; money stolen from Trust Funds by their faithless custodians. All men know this. From first to last Mark Hanna handled fabulous sums—millions upon millions—to buy the votes of dishonest men, and thus by collusion and chicanery, to forestall the verdict of the ballot-box.

In 1904, though money was not needed, the corruption went right along. Man-of-Money Hanna was succeeded by Man-of-all-Work Cortelyou. The Department of Commerce had been created for the express purpose of drawing a line on the corporations. Cortelyou was placed at the head of it. When, thence transferred to the Chairmanship of the National Committee, he had only to enter the various offices to say, "Cough it up, you son-of-a-gun, cough it up," and one and all they coughed it up in amounts so enormous that more than a million was left over.

Can any honest, or intelligent, man deny the truth of this? Shall the same foul agencies, the same wicked appliances, the same corrupt managers be permitted to repeat in 1908 the infamous practices of 1896, of 1900 and of 1904? That is the question for the people to most seriously consider.

The refusal to pass a Publicity Act of Congress, the voting down of the Publicity proposal in the National Convention, meant business, too. These men never intended to let go their grip upon the lawless rich. Can they buy it? It is up to the people, the whole people, to say. In the face of such facts how can any upright, patriotic Republican vote for Taft and square his conscience with himself, or his ballot with his God?—Courier-Journal.

Vice presidential candidate John W. Kern was called from Syracuse, N. Y., to Indianapolis on account of the serious illness of his 8-year-old son.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by R. H. White & Co. 13-4t.

A COMMON ERROR

The Same Mistake Is Made by Many Mt. Sterling People.

It's a common error To plaster the aching back To rub with liniments rheumatic joints, When the trouble comes from the kidneys.

Mrs. Patrick Sheridan, living on South Queen St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "Every member of my family have at some time used Doan's Kidney Pills and have been benefited. My back had become so weak and lame that I could not walk and the kidney secretions were too profuse in action but Doan's Kidney Pills quickly relieved these troubles. I consider them the best kidney remedy I have ever used and am glad to give them my endorsement. Last fall my daughter procured Doan's Kidney Pills at F. C. Duerson's drug store for disordered kidneys and was soon cured. They have acted as represented in every case that has come to my attention, and I deem it a pleasure to recommend them to others."

We have no fears that Amos Davis will be defeated for Congress. People who know him have confidence in him as a MAN, worthy of confidence and support. When the landslide for Bryan comes on Tuesday, Davis' will be in it.

We will probably be one day late next week on account of election news.

Read the Courier-Journal's Sunday forecast of the Presidential election.

See in this issue "Notice of Election" calling for a local option election in a Jeffersonville precinct.

Let Montgomery Democrats voting for Amos Davis show their appreciation for what Morgan county has done for the party.

R. C. Robinson is a candidate for Deputy Sheriff under Jas. W. White. He is extensively and favorably known and is a strong man.

On Thursday night Mr. J. Embury Allen, of Lexington, spoke to large audience at the Court House as a substitute for J. Hamilton Lewis.

Even Pres. Roosevelt is scared over the political prospect. At a cabinet meeting it was decided that its members must spend this week in doubtful states to avert if possible a landslide for Bryan. They are trying.

VOTE AS YOU TALK.

If the immense throngs that meet the illustrious Democratic candidate for president and his representatives are a forecast of the results of the coming election November 3rd, Bryan and Kern will be chosen president and vice president and Judge Amos Davis will be elected to a seat in congress.

REGISTER.

To fail to register in some way provided by law precludes participation in primaries and any elections that may come off during the current year. Better register today. This is the last day to register before the County Clerk and the voter cannot register before him unless he makes out that he was sick or out of the city on regular registration day.

LET THE PEOPLE TRIUMPH.

If the majorities are to rule, if ours is to remain a Democratic form of government the people must vote against that party that fosters trusts and all forms of monopolies. The Republican party must be dethroned from power. Democrats, to your posts, voting for Bryan, Kern and Amos Davis. It is measures that the great mass of people must stand for.

IN DOUBT.

In 1907 a Republican in an adjoining county who is a political prophet of noted reputation, when asked about betting on the state election advised his Democratic friends to keep their money in their pocket. This year he advises his friends to keep their money in their pocket, as the election will be close in both State and Nation, and no one can measure what seems to be an approaching landslide.

WILL BE THE NOMINEES.

The withdrawal of Mr. Alex Conner for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney of this district gives the nomination to Mr. W. B. White. Mr. White is one of the best posted and most brilliant young lawyers in the State, and we shall feel the State's interest will be ably and justly cared for by him. Judge A. W. Young to succeed himself is without opposition and this fact is evidence that the people are pleased with his rulings and that he has ably and fearlessly discharged the duties of his office.

BE BRAVE.

If of the people and for the people vote against that party which through its trusts commands and you must obey. The trusts heretofore named the prices of your wheat, corn, beef, and everything produced by the people who were helpless. They have been as dumb beasts of burden. This yoke of oppression can be thrown off by enforcing Democratic principles. People, you who earn your living by the sweat of your brow, to the polls! Vote for Bryan and Kern for president and vice president and Amos Davis for congress.

WORTHILY BESTOWED.

We delight to call Chief Justice E. C. O'Rear of the Court of Appeals our townsman because of honored attainments merited by his own efforts, and prouder are of him when a constituency of Democrats and Republicans pronounce his labors on the bench "well done" and bestow another term without opposition. Bi-partisan spirit is exemplified in this action of Judge O'Rear's constituency and should be an object lesson to Governor Willson when he comes to practice what he preaches.

To the Democrats of the Twenty-first Judicial District.

Five years ago, after a hard fight and considerable expense, I was elected Commonwealth's Attorney for this District.

I have endeavored to discharge every duty without FEAR or FAVOR and I think I have FAITHFULLY served the people by enforcing the law. I felt and thought that I would be accorded the usual endorsement of the party for a second term. It seems that the Honorable Judge of this court is to be given that favor and I say amen to it, but I would have to make another contest to be re-elected.

I believe that the majority of the good citizens of this District are for me, but sad to tell, they do not always count in some counties of this District.

My opponent is backed by the powerful influence of the saloon which I have fought, and also by every gambler and many other men who have been unfortunate enough to be prosecuted and convicted by me. These are the men that I would have to fight. They know no law and respect none, nor do they respect a man who seeks to enforce law.

My opponent has money and that is a great factor in the race and I am a poor man with no money and a large family to care for.

To fight the saloon and those who stand with them would require the expenditure of a large sum of money and I haven't the money to spend, and if I had it, or could get it, I do not propose to BUY VOTES or to DEBAUCH voters with WHISKY to secure my office. To enter this race I must deposit $500, and with the assurance that money and whiskey will be freely used against me, knowing well what they can accomplish, I do not believe that a fair expression of the choice of the people can be had.

Therefore, I have concluded to abandon such a contest, and I now withdraw from a fight against money, whiskey, gamblers and saloons.

To the good people of the four counties who do appreciate the work I have done for them and who have promised me their support I wish to render my most heartfelt gratitude, and I wish to assure them that in the year I have yet to serve I will faithfully prosecute all violators of the law no matter who they may be.

Thanking my friends and loyal supporters once more and regretting that we have to submit to such an element as the saloon

I am most truly,
 ALEX CONNER.

Washington, Oct. 24.—They are on the run," announced Chairman Mack, of the Democratic National Committee, in an interview in New York this afternoon. He added: "President Roosevelt's sending his Cabinet out shows very clearly that he is frightened. He knows—and the Republican leaders know—that Bryan is making tremendous gains.

"Personally, I wish the President would take the stump. I think it would do us a lot of good.

"Mr. Bryan is absolutely confident of his election. He has been confident all along, and is more convinced now that he has come East."

Wassals Attacked Cow.
On Monday on the farm of H. A. Bell, near Hanover, Pa., noticed a cow in a nearby meadow strangely jumping about and behaving badly. Upon investigation they were astonished to find that eight wassals had attacked her. After a hard fight the farmers succeeded in killing several of the bloodsuckers and scattering the remainder.

Public Sale.
My farm of 197 acres, situated in Bath county, on State Road, 2 miles from Stephentown, will be sold November 9th, 1908, to the highest bidder at the court house door in Ovingville, Ky. It has 2 good tenant houses, 2 good barns and numerous other outbuildings; is well fenced and watered; has fine young orchard; land lays well and all in grass except 15 or 20 acres.

Cotely Popularity.
Frances Louisa Gumbetta is named after the famous politician, who died on December 31, 1882. In the times of his intense popularity Gumbetta had an experience which he was wont to tell against himself. In Paris admirers unrolled his horses and dragged the carriage. His house Gumbetta would narrate this with an air of pride, and he would add, with a smile: "But I never saw my horses again."

The United States has spent over $5,750,000 in municipal improvements in Panama, Colon and the Canal Zone, the money to be repaid with interest within fifty

MAKE THIS UP AT YOUR HOME.

Hundreds of People in Vicinity Here Welcome This Advice. Says Local Druggist.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Karpag, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up at cost to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could not so reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleaning these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial. 14-3t

GROWING CHILDREN
Need a Strength Building Tonic, Daughter of Mrs. Simmons of Lakewood, N. J., was RESTORED TO HEALTH BY VINOL.

"Our daughter, who is twelve years of age, was in a very run-down condition from fast growing. We were advised to try Vinol to build her up, and after using four bottles she has a good healthy color, is free from nervousness and has gained eight pounds. She is now full of life and ready for outdoor exercise, where previously she napped in the house. I can cheerfully recommend Vinol as a first-class tonic reconstitutor and that it will do rapidly growing children a world of good." Mrs. T. Simmons, 250 Main St., Lakewood, N. J.

This is because Vinol is the best cod liver and iron tonic in the world, does not taste of oil, and has no equal to create strength and build up health for delicate children, feeble old people, weak run-down persons, and after sickness. Try Vinol. If it does not good your money will be returned on demand. That's your guarantee, but we know it will benefit any such case. Wm. S. Lloyd, druggist, Mt. Sterling.

DEWEY HAS YOUTHFUL CHUM.

Ten-Year-Old Charlie Tied in Admiral's Great Friend.

Wouldn't it be nice, boys, to have a real, sure enough, big, live admiral for your best chum?
That is what Charlie Tied, ten-year-old son of the Republican candidate for president, has in Admiral George Dewey of Uncle Sam's big navy. The admiral is Charlie's best friend and chum. They're great chums, says the Toledo News-Be.

Charlie went to the Philippines with his father just when the admiral's fame was at its zenith. There he became a whole lot about the admiral. The first thing he did when he returned was to go down to his home and ask for his autograph.

He got it. More than that, that he was a special friend to the admiral. Since then he has visited him often, and they're taken many a carriage ride together. About a year ago the admiral came down town past George and Charlie. Since then Charlie and the admiral have become real chums.

Charlie doesn't think last of the admiral as he used to, and he is delighted with the idea of his father being elected president. If he were to have a war to go down to the president's ship, he would go down to the White House and greet the president.

IS AN AUTO-STIMULANT.

Can Head on Table and Ideas Flow Freely.

"An auto-stimulant, a self-formula for, something which yourself which instantly will turn your tired and jaded brain to a fresh and vigorous one."
The speaker, a reporter, increased the power of the electric fan.
"Yes," he said, "I am the inventor of the auto-stimulant, and I'll give you the recipe. It is simply to work with your head on a table."

THEIR MONEY IN OLD BOOTS.

"Ellis county has more money hidden in tin cans and old boots than is deposited in the banks," said Val E. Gross, a banker and broker of Hays City, Kan., to a correspondent of the Washington Post.
Old boots are the proper things," continued the Kansas banker, "because the people who hide their money in tin cans, as a rule, have no money. They are poor people. They are Russian farmers, who have no working knowledge of our banking system, and who show no disposition to learn much about it."
They do their own banking. Their money consists of a tin can or an old boot, and their safety deposit vault is a hole under the barn or in the cellar. When they want to go to the bank, they pay cash for it. When they sell something they demand the cash and hide it.

"It is a conservative estimate to say that more than half of the actual cash of Ellis county is hidden. Our banks are empty. The money is in the hands of the Russian farmers. They are poor people. They are Russian farmers, who have no working knowledge of our banking system, and who show no disposition to learn much about it."

Man with a Bull Couldn't Listen to Political Talk.

They were waiting on a corner for the street car when the man with the old newspaper turned to the man with the eye glasses and queried: "Well, how do you like the Denver nomination?"

"Um!" was the response. "Going to be a strong candidate, don't you think?"

"And I shouldn't be in the least surprised to see him elected."

"In fact, I find lots of people who think it's time for a change. Perhaps you think that way yourself?"

"At any rate, it's going to be a hot campaign from now on, and of course, every lover of his country will be interested."

"Um!"

"As to Roosevelt, sir—as to Roosevelt, while I have no particular fault to find with him—"

"Are you speaking to me, sir?" asked the "Um!" man, as he suddenly woke up.

"Speaking to you? Why, I've been talking to you for the last half hour."

"About what?"

"About the Denver nomination."

"Oh—politics! I've got a bull on my leg as big as a teacup, a lawsuit coming off this afternoon, and my wife's sick up this morning and left the house. Talk to me in a soothing way or shut up!"

COURTESY TO WELL-DRESSED Richly-Clad Women Get Seats in Street Cars.

"The species of person feminine to whom man gives up his seat in the street car is a subject of perennial discussion," said the observant woman in the New York Tribune. "I can tell you definitely. It is to the well-dressed woman. I have used the street car every day except Sunday and holidays for the last ten years. Seats for offered me when I have on my good clothes, and I am left to stand when I have not."

"Man's subjection to feminine beauty is a tradition. It isn't beauty he's subject to; it's clothes. Ten years ago I was a good deal younger and better looking than I am now, but I didn't get a seat in the street car or other small courtesies from men nearly so often. The reason? Why, I have a good deal more money to spend now and I have acquired a deeper and more thorough acquaintance with the whole subject of clothes. Therefore, I dress much better. If a girl as pretty as a picture in poor, common clothes, came into a car, and a middle-aged woman elegantly dressed, I would back her up to get the seat. Homage to feminine beauty, indeed! Its homage to feminine clothes men pay."

Mr. Wu Ting Fang.

Of the famous Wu Ting Fang, who is said to have become a recent convert to vegetarianism, a Washington correspondent said the other day in the Washington Star:

"Vegetarianism may strengthen Mr. Wu's body; his brain requires no tonic. 'A more brilliant mind doesn't exist. In my last interview with him he rattled off, as you or I would rattle off weather talk, these enigmas: 'He who expects to find pleasure in vice and boredom in virtue is still a novice in both.'"

"The most timid woman has courage enough to talk scandal."

"The rich meet relations in the most distant foreign lands, but the poor man can hardly find them in his own family."

She Wouldn't.

A young Scottish parson was driving home from an outlying hamlet when he overtook a young woman. He recognized her as the maid of all work at a farm which he would pass, so he pulled up and offered her a lift. Mary gladly accepted his offer, and they hurried pleasantly all the way to the farm gate.

"Thank you, sir," she said, as she got down.

"Don't mention it, Mary. Don't mention it," he told her, politely.

"No, I won't," Mary obligingly assured him.

Costly Headgear.

The proprietor of a fashionable cafe at Marzenbad is the possessor of a straw hat which he values at $1,000. The hat is not a costly variety of Panama, but is rather a rough-looking straw hat, yet it is the pride of the proprietor's life, because it is woven of straws through which the crowned heads of Europe have at various times scooped cooling drinks dispensed in the owner's establishment. For many years this king worshiper had been collecting straws from the royal lips, securing mere nooks or statestems. When the collection was large enough the hat was manufactured.

Red Tape Binding.

There is nothing that binds like red tape. The story is told of a private in the French army who desired to buy and wear a special kind of shoe rather than the regulation article. He discovered that it was possible only after months of delay, and after securing written permits from some seven bureaus or more.

A Woman's Age.

If you want to know how old a woman is, ask her sister-in-law.—Athenian Globe.

SHE GOT A BRIDE'S SUIT CASE.

Was Horrified When She Saw What Came in Exchange.

"Slight unions" was the name of trading at the union depot recently. Two suit cases that looked "just exactly alike," a blushing bride and a matronly looking woman with four small children were the cause of all the trouble.

"Oh! Oh!" said the matronly woman, rushing up to J. H. Wallensworth, acting depot master, "some one has stolen my suit case."

Mr. Wallensworth opened the suit case. A marriage license was the first thing he saw and under it were the nicest, fluffiest, sweetest perfume "things" imaginable. Mr. Wallensworth took the license up to the depot balcony where the big megaphone is kept.

"Listen, Lewis, they're calling your name," said Mrs. Nash, husband bound to Dahlart, Tex., from her honeymoon.

They went to see.

Both suit cases were then laid open near the information bureau.

"Did you ever," said Mrs. Clarkson, "what would I have done if I hadn't found you?"

Mrs. Clarkson's case contained baby clothes.

DREAD OF NUMBER THIRTEEN.

Superstition First Arose Among the Norsemen. It is Supposed.

The 13 superstition originally arose among the Norsemen, for it is recorded in the old Norse mythology that the god Balder was slain at a banquet, at which there were 13 guests, and as being slain was just as unpopular an experience then as it is now.

The number came to be regarded as an ill-omen, relates Strabo.

In Christian countries it is generally supposed that the belief had its origin in the last supper, but as a matter of fact, it is of a far older date.

In many lands it is regarded far more seriously than it is in England. The Turks, for instance, as divide the number that the word is almost expunged from their vocabulary.

In Paris to house bears the number; while people called "Quatorze" are often hired out at a pinch to make a fourteenth at dinner parties.

The Distance Around.

A bright-eyed old man boarded the train at St. Paul, bound for Seattle. As the conductor passed through the car the old man stopped him and asked how far it was from St. Paul to Seattle.

The next time the conductor came along the old man stopped him again, and asked him how far it was from Seattle to St. Paul.

"See here, my man," said the conductor, pompously, "it's 1,620 miles from St. Paul to Seattle, and it's 1,620 miles from Seattle to St. Paul; do you understand?"

"Maybe so," said the little man, modestly. "I didn't know. You see, it's only seven days from Christmas to New Year's, but it's a long time from New Year's to Christmas."

Conducts Examination.

The council of the Royal College of Surgeons has given permission to Dr. Elliot Smith and Dr. Wood Jones of the Cairo Medical school, to carry out in the museum of the college, an examination of a collection of material found during excavations in the Nile valley.

The material is representative of peoples inhabiting Nubia in ancient times, and is expected to throw light on their pathology and the results of their surgery. The Egyptian government has expressed its willingness to present the collection of specimens to the museum of the Royal College of Surgeons.

Mush.

Gen. Dabney H. Murray tells in his "Recollections of a Virginian" of an old lady in Fredericksburg who was refused to taking in boarders in order to make both ends meet. On one occasion of stress the lady was so empty that the good woman took her bed and summoned her servant "Nancy," she said, "there's nothing in the house for my boarders to eat except mush. But give them that, if they are Christians they will accept it in resignation and thankfulness. And if they are not Christians, it is a deal too good for them."

Memorial to Victims.

The prison ship which forgotten victims of the revolutionary war has been commemorated after more than a hundred years of neglect. A monument to the memory of these 11,500 victims of the Wallabout prison ship is erected on Fort Green hill, in Brooklyn, and dedicated by the President of the United States.

Straight Talk About Clothes

If ever there was a time that the men of the grand Old Commonwealth of Kentucky should use judgment in their clothes buying, it certainly is now. Every man today doing business for himself is especially endowed with that great power of decision. Let no man use this power for you, nor tamper with you by trying to commit you by promises that may lead to a personal loss to your appearance or your pocket book. We ask for no promises. We don't say you ought to buy from us just because it's us. We have established a store here in your county seat second to none in the State. Our purchasing power has reached a point that enables us to control certain lines and buy them for less money than other stores. The school of business teaches a lesson that follows, buy for less, sell for less, and this we do.

We are showing 200 pure all-wool Suits that are absolutely fast in color and worth every cent of $15, made in snappy styles with fancy pockets and cuffs on sleeves, peg top or plain trouser, roll bottom or plain styles for young men; styles for old men and plenty of patterns in the new Greens, Tans, Browns and Greys. Look here; use your judgment in regard to buying. No compulsion.

$12

300 Suits especially bought and especially priced; a leader without a parallel. We have made the price even $12 for these suits. Other stores who buy in the regular way and lose discounts must sell in the regular way these suits, and the regular price is $18. Our plan, save every cent in buying and give it to our home people on their purchases is shown to a marked degree in this lot of pure wool, long Australian yarns that you may examine for yourself, in the smart shades of blue and brown with self stripes and checks, cut and made in a faultless manner, as plain or as fancy as you like to fit you. If you are stout, slim or of the regular type, and the price is $12, whether you buy one or a hundred. It's one of these chances to use your judgment.

$15

Here is where we stand alone. Our $15 Suits are so different; show such care even to the slightest detail, that no man with judgment can hardly pass them. Some of the greatest tailors in the world have worked on these clothes. The snap, the style, the shape-holding qualities, all appeal in the wearing. We show so many styles, so many different treatments in style designs that it looks hardly unnecessary to go into the finer grades for a suit. Blacks, Blues, Greys, Greens, Tans and Olives in regatta stripes, tiger stripes, zebra stripes, and broken plaids that can't help but appeal to your good judgment. Come see them, and don't buy until you do. Remember every price named here is a special price and our big windows, if you see them, will show you that we mean for you to have the most for your money.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee and other States testify to the merits of Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy and Bourbon Poultry Cure.

Read What People Who Have Used This Remedy Say:

Mrs. J. D. Cox, Happy Hollow Poultry Farm, Lawrenceburg, Ky., says: "I have the finest flock of Mammotus Bronze Turkeys in the State. They are fed Bourbon Poultry Cure twice a week and it gives them a glossy, healthy look. I don't want to be without this medicine a single day. See my exhibit of Turkeys at the State Fair."

Mrs. Ella Sonenstetter, Glasgow, Ill., says: "I have eighty head of fine Bourbon Turkeys. My neighbors have lost all of theirs. They all raise Bronze Turkeys and they say that mine are better bred than all the difference. I feed Bourbon Poultry Cure twice a week and tell them if they will use it they will have as good luck with their turkeys as I have with mine."

R. B. North, Druggist, Franklin, Tenn., says: "There is some Hog Cholera here and your Bourbon H. C. Cholera Remedy is working wonders. One man never lost a hog and another lost but one."

E. Franklin & Son, Gallatin, Tenn., says: "Please send us another case of Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy. We are hearing good reports from the Remedy sold last fall."

W. B. Broder, Spencer, Ohio, says: "I have used your Bourbon Poultry Cure with my chickens and turkeys (I raise forty varieties) and think it is the best remedy for cholera that I have ever used."

Wm. Manlove, Tipton, Ind., says: "I had cholera in my herd and did not lose a hog after giving them Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy."

My son used it with the same results. In my judgment this medicine is a sure cure for hog cholera. I have been giving your Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy to our hogs and find it to be a sure worm exterminator."

K. C. Fell, Lanesburg, Mo., Breeder of Registered Duroc-Jersey Hogs, says: "We have been giving your Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy to our hogs and find it to be a sure worm exterminator."

Frement Bennett, Modoc, Ind., says: "I use two other remedies and lost twenty-six out of eighty-five hogs. I then used Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy and it cured all my hogs."

Mrs. D. A. Brooks, Sturgis, Ky., says: "I have been using your Bourbon Poultry Cure and I think it fine. If you will send our druggist here to keep it in stock I will recommend it. I am an old time chicken raiser, and so many people come to me for pointers on poultry."

H. E. Samuel, Druggist, Harrodsburg, Ky., says: "Please find enclosed check for which send me another case of Bourbon Poultry Cure. This is certainly a good remedy, and every bottle I have sold has been highly praised. I am truly grateful to find a remedy that is so reliable."

FIGHTING FORMOSAN TRIBES.

Aborigines Willing to Give Up Enemies' Skulls.

Several weeks ago ten communities of the Nan-Ow aboriginal tribes of the Gran province of Formosa, proposed to the government to submit, says the South China Post. Upon this the government gave them the following items of conditions under which the government was disposed to admit their submission:

1. The aborigines concerned should hand over to the government those skulls which had been cut off the bodies of the other tribes whom they killed and are keeping in their houses according to their habits.

2. The arms and ammunition should all be surrendered to the government. The aborigines agreed to the former condition, but many of them objected to the latter, and thereupon they gave up the idea of submission. Since then they are again offering resistance against the government troops, appearing here and there in the vicinity of the Aiyu line (a guard line established by the government against the unsubmitted aborigines), but the government troops having finished the construction of their guardhouses, telegraph lines and wire communications, and thus almost attaining their object, are now chiefly paying attention to their guard service, attaching less importance to their submission.

NERVES THAT STOP WORK.

Odors Unnoticed After a Few Minutes—Unfiring Heart.

The most easily tried nerves in the body are the nerves that stop work. They can be detected the faintest whiff of perfume, says Ray Storer.

As you pass in the garden, the quantity of perfume that gets into your nostrils must be many millions of billions of times smaller than the faintest grain of sand. But the strongest perfume to your nostrils and in a few seconds you fall to sleep. The nerve of smell is so quick, it is fatigued.

The heat nerves and cold nerves which are quite distinct from the nerves of ordinary sensibility, are working very quickly. A bath that seems quiet when you first step into it, very soon ceases to cause any particular feeling of heat.

Nerves of hearing and sight can go through an enormous amount of work for 16 hours a day they work hard and are still willing to do more.

The nerves of the heart are the most striking of all. From the dawn of life until the last gasp, they work without stopping for one instant.

One on Ira Sankey.

A story told by the late Ira D. Sankey on himself has been revived since the evangelist's death. One day he entered a Swiss shop and asked to see some music books. The salesman, who was a Swiss, was very gracious about him a number, but none was what he wanted. "Have you none that play sacred music?" he asked. "Why," answered the salesman, "we have some that play a kind of a half-way sacred music." "What?" he asked. "Sankey." "Oh, those old songs and hymns; I can't imagine what the people see in them, but we sell thousands of the boxes that play them. We have enormous orders for these boxes," continued the salesman, "from every part of Europe," and then he added, apologetically, "It's a matter of business you know, with us."

Suspicious.

Senator Penrose, a few days before he set out on his hunting trip in the Rockies, said of a political movement, a political reporter of Philadelphia: "These words are suspicious. The words of a wine merchant and his wife."

"This couple were inspecting a thing on the Penrose estate that they thought of renting. The water was, unfortunately, poor."

"Trailing the water, frowning, and dashing his head, the merchant said: 'It would do, at a pinch, for my Indian shoes; but how about my chapeau and vintage wines?'"

"Couldn't you filter it?" he wife asked.—Philadelphia Record.

Origin of the "Ghost."

The most popular creature in the strict circles is "the ghost," and the ghost is said to "walk" when salaries are paid. The credit for originating this phrase belongs to a company of English strolling players, who, although their salaries had long been in arrears, were rehearsing "Hansel." The rehearsal progressed, but when Hansel, referring to the ghost, exclaimed: "Perchance 'the ghost' again," that would admit yellow back again emphatically: "No! I'm—d— if the ghost writes any more until our salaries are paid!"

Object to Memorial.

Successful objection has been made. The memorial and obituary notice of Bertha to the form of the proposed memorial to Virchow, which is not a statue of Virchow, but introduces as the chief group a symbolic representation of his life work in the form of a struggle between a giant and a falcon, heart, while on a pedestal a medallion portrait of Virchow is placed.

Judge Taft's Speech.

We went to hear William Howard Taft speak yesterday afternoon. We did not hear all his speech, not getting there till some minutes after he had begun, due to the fact that we accepted as accurate the announcement made of the time he would begin speaking. But—just between us—we heard a plenty.

Judge Taft by his record, Judge Taft deserves a high position among the useful men of America; by his personality, he wins many friends; but he certainly is a mighty poor speaker.

By the grace of the Republican party for President, Judge Taft utterly fails to realize that the people of America prefer a man who is his own master to a man who is merely the creature of another.

There was not a single solitary view presented by Judge Taft, in that part of the speech which we heard, which entitled him to any consideration as a fit candidate for President of the United States. There was not even a glimmer of original thought, no indication of initiative, no suggestion of a desire or intention to be more than the representative of the controlling force in the Republican party.

We have rarely been as much disappointed in any speech as we were in the speech delivered by Judge Taft. It was a superb address which greeted him, filling every nook and cranny of the Opera House, and splendid in its texture, an audience which ought to inspire any man to his best effort. But if a single person who was in that audience left the Opera House with a new idea it must have been some one who went there without any idea at all. If a single person heard any idea presented in a novel way it must have been some one who never heard the subjects discussed by Judge Taft discussed by any one else. Platitudes flat and unprofitable composed his speech.

A pleasant manner, a handsome presence, a clear, though not particularly attractive, voice and the halo which comes from being the nominee of a great party for the most exalted office in America united to draw the crowd and keep it interested. There was also the hope that at some time there might be something of value said. But up to the very moment he closed there was not a single thought advanced, not a single sentence uttered, not a single principle enunciated, which entitled him to the vote of any citizen.

The meeting was closed by a speech by ex-Governor Bradley who, by the combination of the Republican Representatives and Democrats who betrayed their party at the behest of the liquor interests, will sit as Senator from Kentucky in the Upper House of Congress for the next six years.

An attractive combination surely! William Howard Taft, by the grace of Theodore Roosevelt nominee for President, and William O'Connell Bradley, by the grace of the whiskey interests Senator-elect from Kentucky. A most sweet-scented pair, a pair which appeals with irresistible attraction to all who believe in "the moral uplift" of the movements inaugurated by Theodore Roosevelt; to all who protest with upraised hands and upturned eyes that they are holier than their neighbors; to all who, with assumption of superior virtue, sneer at Democrats because, forsooth, Mr. Bryan has been twice defeated.

Mr. Taft himself thought it proper and fitting to disparage Mr. Bryan because of the fact that, in 1896, Mr. Bryan advocated the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 and a majority of the voters of America cast their ballots for Mr. McKinley, overlooking or forgetting the fact that Mr. McKinley's election was due to the votes of "old sound, free trade Democrats who were betrayed by Mr. McKinley, in spite of the fact that he owed his election to them."

It becomes one whose first appointment to Federal office was by Mr. McKinley to attempt to cast discredit upon Mr. Bryan because of his defeat in 1896, unless he is willing also to admit Mr. McKinley's betrayal of those to whom he owed his election.

We are glad Judge Taft has come to Lexington, glad he has spoken here as a candidate, for his appearance and speech make certain that the electoral vote of Kentucky will be cast for Mr. Bryan.—Lexington Leader.

More About Panama.

The New York World is continuing its series of sensational articles in regard to the purchase and management of the Panama Canal. It publishes the fact that Gen. Geo. W. Davis, whose appointment as member of the Canal Commission was universally recognized as most fitting, was summarily dismissed by Secretary Taft because he criticised the conduct of William Crowell and his associates in declaring a dividend on the stock of the Panama Railway Company after the United States Government had agreed to purchase for $40,000,000 the stock which the American syndicate had purchased from the French holders for less than $3,500,000.

Time, after time, day after day, has the World reiterated the charge that the American syndicate purchased for less than $3,500,000 all the shares held by the French stockholders in the Panama Canal Company and that these shares were then sold to the United States Government for $40,000,000.

It has published that Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of President Roosevelt; Charles P. Taft, half brother of William H. Taft, and George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, were members of that syndicate.

It has further published that all the records showing the distribution of the $40,000,000 have disappeared from France; that little trace of them can be secured today to show they were sent to the government at Washington and have been destroyed, so that it is impossible to find who were the beneficiaries of this coup d'etat of William Nelson Cromwell and his Republican associates.

The files of the White House seem to contain wonderful letters upon any subject that may need particular explanation. It seems curious they do not contain some record of so important a transaction as the sale of the Panama Canal to the American Government for over ten times as much as the American syndicate gave for it, when the brother-in-law of the President himself is charged with being a member of that syndicate.

It is also an interesting query how much of the $36,000,000 or $37,000,000 which the members of that syndicate made by that transaction they are willing to give to preserve the archives of the government and the records which may still be in existence being turned over to the inspection of the Democrats.

Why Colds are Dangerous.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Every one knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough and much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale by R. H. White & Co. 13-4t.

A Child's Comment.

Even little children are amazed at the backwardness of New York. A bright youngster of five, crossing over from New Jersey and seeing the West street transportation relief for the first time, jerked her father's coat-tail nearly off, exclaiming: "Oh, papa, see the trolley cars being pulled by horses!"—N. Y. Press.

From an English Geography.

"In that part of America which is known as New Jersey the mosquitoes are so thick that a herd of them, crossing a railroad track, will frequently hold up a train."—Puck.
